

YOUTH SUNDAY CLASS: JOB & ECCLESIASTES

The summer study unpacks two of the Bible's wisdom books: Job and Ecclesiastes. What is the meaning of life? Why is life so difficult at some times and so amazing at others? Why do we spend so much of our lives going to school or working a job? Why do seemingly good people suffer? These questions have likely bothered you at some point, and if they haven't, they soon will. This is, in part, why God has given us books of wisdom. Job and Ecclesiastes not only help us cope with life in all fallen world, but also challenge us to trust God not matter what we hare going through. Wisdom has to do with putting truth into practice and these two books help us learn to apply what we know about God to how we live, learn and love our neighbors in everyday life.

Date: June 6 to August 29, 2021

Time: 9:30-10:45am (in-person and Zoom)

Room: 306-308

Teacher: Aldous Tsang

Sign up: register with Aldous at aldoustsang@gmail.com

GOSPEL OF LUKE

PART I CLASS (continuation from April)

Date: June 6 to 27, 2021

Time: 9:30-10:45am (in-person and Zoom)

Room: 304-305

Teacher: Rick Zuniga

Sign up with Pr. Rick at rickzuniga@cefcla.org

PART II CLASS

Date: July to September, 2021

Time: 9:30-10:45am (in-person and Zoom)

Room: 304-305

Teacher: Rick Zuniga and Ryan Tokeshi

Sign up with Pr. Rick at rickzuniga@cefcla.org

GOSPEL FOUNDATIONS

This class is geared for people from all levels of spiritual background, whether seeker, new believer, or a growing mature believer. It is both discipleship-oriented (accountability, emphasis on application) as well as teaching-oriented (understanding gospel concepts). The goal is to lay a firm foundation of the gospel and how this new gospel identity helps us grow in faith and obedience. We will cover topics such as salvation, assurance of salvation, lordship of Christ, communion with God, union with Christ, sonship, etc.

Date: July to August, 2021

Time: 9:30-10:45am (online via Zoom only)

Teacher: Heath Cheung

Sign up with Heath at heathzcheung@gmail.com