To

stepmoms, adopted moms, spiritual moms, and those
wanting to be moms,
for all you do we thank you,

*we honor you,
and we bless you.*

To those who brought their newborn into the world this year, we celebrate you. For the late and sleepless nights, we thank you for your patience.

For those who parent teenagers, keep going. It matters.

To those who are foster moms, mentor moms, and spiritual moms, we are desperate for you. We value your commitment to love. For your support, encouragement, prayers, and perseverance, we are grateful. We cannot thank you enough.

To those who have warm and close relationships with your children, today we celebrate with you.

To those who have disappointment, heartache, or distance with your children, may God bring healing and peace.

And to those that have lost their moms this year, we grieve with you.

To those who are exhausted, overwhelmed with the stay-at-home order, and in need of support, may you sense God's hands of provision in this season and know that you are appreciated!

To the single mothers carrying the world on their shoulders, you are a hero, may God lighten your load and honor your never ending work.

So today on this Mother's Day, we celebrate all of you in our midst. May you know that you are never alone in your journey, we love you and will be walking with you. May His goodness and mercy strengthen you each day!

Moms, we love you.

Grandmothers, we are grateful for you.

WELCOME
